is fraught with dangers. At this period the young woman is especially sensitive, and many nervous troubles, which continue through life, have their origin at this time. If there be pain, headache, and nervous disturbances, or the general health not good, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best tonic and nerve at this time. The best bodily condition results from its use. It is a remedy specially indicated for those delicate weakness and derangements that afflict women at one period or another. It is of peculiar nature, the "Prescription" being an agent that builds up, strengthens, and cures Catarrh.

CHEAPEST BREAD.—At a meeting of the bakers of Hagerstown recently it was decided that on and after Monday, March 26, they would put twenty-four ounces of dough in each 5-cent loaf of bread, instead of 22 ounces. Several bakers already reducing the price of a loaf of twenty-two ounces to 4 cents, but, for convenience in making change and other reasons, it was decided to make the loaves larger and retain the old prices. All the bakers will be obliged to buy new pans, which will be expensive, pans costing one baker $70 and another about $150. It is thought many people will now buy their bread instead of baking it themselves. The reduction in the price of bread was made to conform to the reduction in the price of flour.
The above, taken from a western Maryland paper, is commended to the bread bakers of this city. It has long been a wonder that our commissioners have not turned their attention to this outrage upon the poor and the injustice upon the better class of our citizens. It is but a simple act of justice, now that flour can be had for $4.50 per barrel, that bread should be reduced or leaves made to conform to the new order of things. There is no law requiring this in Maryland, but there the bakers are content with a fair profit.—Washington Star.

BOTH ESCAPED.—A letter from Fairfax to the London Enterprise says: "Mr. George Gunnell, while fishing with a net at Great Falls, one day last week, succeeded in landing a carp, the exact proportions of which will never be known to this inquisitive world. He had barely landed the huge monster before it made battle with him. After a fierce conflict of several minutes, Mr. Gunnell mounted the back of this piscatorial wonder and took a lively trip around the beach, landing in the blue depths of the historic old Potomac. The fish, of course, made his escape, and likewise Mr. Gunnell."

FOUR SUNS IN ONE SKY.—One of the most remarkable phenomena within the memory of the oldest inhabitant of Chestertown, Md., was seen in the heavens one day last week at 2 o'clock. An immense circle formed intersecting on its southwestern rim the sun, which was entirely unobscured by the clouds. In the course of a half hour three distinct mock suns appeared on the northeastern, the northern and southern rim of the circle. Two of the suns showed clearly the combinations of color of a perfect prism.
